MEMBERSHIP OF THE FUND

<sup>1</sup>[26. Classes of employees entitled and required to join the fund. -- (1) (a) Every employee employed in or in connection with the work of a factory or other establishment to which this scheme applies, other than an excluded employee, shall be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the day this paragraph comes into force in such factory or other establishment.

(b) Every employee employed in or in connection with the work of a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies, other than an excluded employee, shall also be entitled and required to become a member of the fund from the day this paragraph comes into force, such employee is a subscriber to a provident fund maintained in respect of the factory or other establishment or in respect of any other factory or establishment (to which the Act applies) under the same employer:

Provided that where the Scheme applies to a factory or other establishment on the expiry of cancellation of an ordered of exemption under section 17 of the Act, every employee who but for the exemption would have become and continued as a member of the Fund, shall become member of the Fund forthwith.

(2) After this paragraph comes into force in a factory or other establishment, every employee employed in or in connection with the work of that factory or establishment, other than an excluded employee, who has not become a member already shall also be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the date of joining the factory or establishment.

(3) An excluded employee employed in or in connection with the work of a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies shall, on ceasing to be such an employee, be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the date he ceased to be such employee.

(4) On re-election of an employee or a class of employees exempted under paragraph 27 or paragraph 27-A to join the Fund or on the expiry of cancellation of an order under that paragraph, every employee shall forthwith become a member thereof.

(5) Every employee who is a member of a private provident fund maintained in respect of an exempted factory or other establishment and who but for exemption would have become and continued as a member of the fund shall, on joining a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies, become a member of the fund forthwith.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this paragraph an officer not below the rank of an Assistant Provident Fund Commissioner may, on the joint request in writing, of any employee of a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies and his employer, enroll such employee as a member or allow him to contribute on more than 1[rupees six thousand and five hundred] of his pay per month if he is already a member of the Fund and thereupon such employee shall be entitled to the benefits and shall be subject to the conditions of the Fund, provided that the employer gives an undertaking in writing that he shall pay the administrative charges payable and shall comply with all statutory provisions in respect of such employee.]

<sup>2</sup>[26A. Retention of membership. – (1) A member of the Fund shall continue to be a member until he withdraws under paragraph 69 the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or is covered by a notification of exemption under section 17 of the Act or an order of exemption under paragraph 27 or paragraph 27A.

Explanation. - - In the case of claim for refund by a member under sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 69, the membership of the fund shall be deemed to have been terminated from the date the payment is authorized to him by the authority specified in this behalf by Commissioner irrespective of the date of claim.

(2) Every member employed as an employee other than an excluded employee, in a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies, shall contribute to the Fund and the contribution shall also be payable to the Fund in respect of him by the employer. Such contribution shall be in accordance with the rate specified in paragraph 29 :

Provided that subject to the provisions contained in sub-paragraph (6) of paragraph 26 and <sup>3</sup>[in paragraph 27], or sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 27-A where the monthly pay of such a member exceeds 1[six thousand and five hundred rupees], the contribution payable by him, and in respect of him by the employer, shall be limited to the amounts payable on a monthly pay of

- i. in relation to an establishment, which is a factory, the owner or occupier of the factory; and
- ii. in relation to any other establishment, the person, or the authority, that has the ultimate control over the affairs of the establishment.

2. The Board of Trustees shall meet at least once in every three months and shall function in accordance with the guidelines that may be issued from time to time by the Central Government/Central Provident Fund Commissioner (CPFC) or an officer authorized by him.

3. All employees' as defined in section 2(f) of the Act, who have been eligible to become members of the Provident Fund, had the establishment not been granted exemption, shall be enrolled as members.

4. Where an employee who is already a member of Employees' Provident Fund or a provident fund of any other exempted establishment is employed in his establishment, the employer shall immediately enroll him as a member of the fund. The employer should also arrange to have the accumulations in the provident fund account of such employee with his previous employer transferred and credited into his account.

5. The employer shall transfer to the Board of Trustees the contributions payable to the Provident Fund by himself and employees at the rate prescribed under the Act from time to time by the 15th of each month following month for which the contributions are payable. The employer shall be liable to pay simple interest in terms of the provisions of section 7-Q of the Act for any delay in payment of any dues towards the Board of Trustees.

6. The employer shall bear all the expenses of the administration of the provident Fund and also make good any other loss that may be caused to the Provident Fund due to theft, burglary, defalcation, misappropriation or any other reason.

7. Any deficiency in the interest declared by the Board of Trustees is to be made good by the employer to bring it up to the statutory limit.

8. The employer shall display on the notice board of the establishment, a copy of the rules of the funds as approved by the appropriate authority and as and when amended thereto along with a translation in the language of the majority of the employees.

9. The rate of contributions payable, the conditions and quantum of advances and other matters laid down under the provident fund rules of the establishment and the interest credited to the account of each member, calculated on the monthly running balance of the member and declared by the Central Government under the various provisions prescribed in the Act and the Scheme framed there under.

10. Any amendment to the Scheme, which is more beneficial to the employees than the existing rules of the establishment, shall be made applicable to them automatically pending formal amendment of the Rules of the Trust.

11. No amendment in the rules shall be made by the employer without the prior approval of the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner (referred to as RPFC hereafter). The RPFC shall before giving his approval give a reasonable opportunity to the employees to explain their point of view.

12. All claims for withdrawals, advances and transfers should be settled expeditiously, within the maximum time frame prescribed by the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation.

13. The Board of Trustees shall maintain detailed accounts to show the contributions credited, withdrawal and interest in respect of each employee. The maintenance of such records should preferably be done electronically. The establishments should periodically transmit the details of members' accounts electronically as and when directed by the CPFC/RPFC.

14. The board of Trustees shall issue an annual statement of accounts or pass books to every employee within six months of the close of financial / accounting year free of cost once in the year. Additional printouts can be made available as and when the members want, subject to nominal charges. In case of pass book, the same shall remain in custody of employee to be updated periodically by the Trustees when presented to them.

15. the employer shall make necessary provisions to enable all the members to be able to see their account balance from the computer terminals as and when required by them.

16. The Board of Trustees and the employer shall file such returns monthly/annually as may be prescribed by the Employees' Provident Fund Organization within the specified time-limit failing which it will be deemed as a default and the Board of Trustees and employer will jointly and separately be liable for suitable penal action by the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation.

17. The Board of Trustees shall invest the monies of the provident fund as per the direction of the Government from time to time. Failure to make investments as per directions of the Government shall make the Board of Trustees separately and liable to surcharge as may be imposed by the Central Provident Fund Commissioner or his representative.

18. (a) The securities shall be obtained in the name of Trust. The securities so obtained should be in dematerialized (DEMAT) form and in case the required facility is not available in the areas where the trust operates, the Board of Trustees shall inform the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner concerned about the same.

(b) The Board of Trustees shall maintain a script wise register and ensure timely realization of interest.

(c) The DEMAT Account should be opened through depository accordance with the instructions issued by the Central Government in this regard.

(d) The cost of maintaining DEMAT account should be treated as incidental cost of investment by the Trust. Also all types of cost of investments like brokerage for purchase of securities etc. shall be treated as incidental cost of investment by the Trust.

19. All such investments made, like purchase of securities and bonds, should be lodged in the safe custody of depository participants, approved by Reserve Bank of India and Central Government, who shall be the custodian of the same. On closure of establishment or liquidation or cancellation of exemption from EPF Scheme, 1952, such custodian shall transfer the investment obtained in the name of the Trust and standing in its credit to the RPFC concerned directly on receipt of request from the RPFC concerned to that effect.

20. The exempted establishment shall intimate to the RPFC concerned, the details of depository participants (approved by Reserve Bank of India and Central Government), with whom and in whose safe custody, the investments made in the name of trust, viz. Investments made in securities, bonds, etc. have been lodged. However, the Board of trustees may raise such sum or sums of money as may be required for meeting obligatory expenses such as settlement of claims, grant of advances as per rules and transfer of members' P.F. accumulations in the even of his/her leaving service of the employer and any other receipts by sale of the securities or other investments standing in the name of the Fund subject to the prior approval of the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner.

21. Any commission, incentive, bonus, or other pecuniary rewards given by any financial or other institutions for the investments made by the Trust should be credited to its account.

22. The employer and the members of the Board of Trustees, at the time of grant of exemption, shall furnish a written undertaking to the RPFC in such format as may be prescribed from time to time, inter alia, agreeing to abide by the conditions which are specified and this shall be legally binding on the employer and the Board of Trustees, including their successors and assignees or such conditions as may be specified later form continuation of exemption.

23. The employer and the Board of Trustees shall also give an undertaking to transfer the funds promptly within the time limit prescribed by the concerned RPFC in the event of cancellation of exemption. This shall be legally binding on them and will make them liable for prosecution in the event of any delay in the transfer of funds.

24. (a) The account of the Provident Fund maintained by the Board of Trustees shall be subject to audit by a qualified independent chartered accountant actually. Where considered necessary, the CPFC or the RPFC in-charge of the Region shall have the right to have the accounts re-audited by any other qualified auditor and the expenses so incurred shall be borne by the employer.

(b) A copy of the Auditor's report along with the audited balance sheet should be submitted to the RPFC concerned by the Auditors directly within six months after the closing of the Financial year from 1st April to 31st March. The format of the balance sheet and the information to be furnished in the report shall be as prescribed by the Employees' Provident Fund Organization and made available with the RPFC office in electronic format as well as a signed hard copy.

(c) The same auditors should not be appointed for two consecutive years and not more than two years in a block of six years.

25. A Company reporting loss for three consecutive financial years or erosion in their capital base shall have their exemption withdrawn from the first day of the next/succeeding financial year.

26. The employer in relation to the exempted establishment shall provide for such facilities for inspection and pay such inspection charges as the Central Government may from time to time direct under clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 17 of the Act within 15 days from the close of every month.

27. In the event of any violation of the conditions for grant of exemption, by the employer or the Board of Trustees, the exemption granted may be cancelled after issuing a show cause notice in this to regard to the concerned persons.

28. In the event of any loss to the trust as a result of any fraud, defalcation, wrong investment decisions etc., the employer shall be liable to make good the loss.

29. In case of any change of legal status of the establishment which has been granted exemption, as a result of merger, demerger, acquisition, sale, amalgamation, formation of a subsidiary, whether wholly owned or not, etc., the exemption granted shall stand revoked and the establishment should promptly report the matter to the RPFC concerned for grant of fresh exemption.

30. In case, there are more than one unit/establishment, participating in the common Provident Fund Trust which has been granted exemption, all the trustees shall be jointly and separately liable/responsible for any default committed by any of the trustees/employer of any of the participating units and the RPFC shall take suitable legal action against all the trustees of the common Provident Fund Trust.

31. The Central Government may lay down any further conditions for continuation of exemption of the establishment.]

28. Transfer of accumulations from existing Provident Funds.— (1) Every authority in charge of, or entrusted with the management of, any Provident Fund in existence <sup>1</sup>[***] the accumulations wherein are to be transferred to the Fund under sub-section (2) of section 15 of the Act <sup>2</sup>[or sub-section (5) of section 17 thereof, as the case may be.] shall, <sup>1</sup>[***]—

- i. send to the <sup>3</sup>[***] Commissioner a statement showing the amount standing to the Credit of each subscriber on the date of the transfer, the total accumulations to the credit of subscribers generally on that date and the advances, if any, taken by the subscribers <sup>2</sup>[within twenty-five days of the application of the Scheme, or cancellation of exemption, as the case may be,]
- ii. transfer to the Fund in the manner specified in sub-paragraph (2) the total accumulations standing to the credit of the subscribers in relation to each factory <sup>2</sup>[within ten days of the application of the Scheme, or cancellation of exemption, as the case may be, in case of liquid case in bank and within thirty days, in the case of securities,] and

CHAPTER VIII

NOMINATIONS, PAYMENTS AND WITHDRAWALS

FROM THE FUND

61. Nomination. --- (1) Each member shall make in his declaration in Form 2, a nomination conferring the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund in the event of his death before the amount standing to his credit has become payable, or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made.

(2) A member may in his nomination distribute the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund amongst his nominees at his own discretion.

(3) If a member has a family at the time of making a nomination, the nomination shall be in favour of one or more persons belonging to his family. Any nomination made by such member in favour of a person not belonging to his family shall be invalid.

<sup>2</sup>[Provided that a fresh nomination shall be made by the member on his marriage and any nomination made before such marriage shall be deemed to be invalid.]

(4) If at the time of making a nomination the member has no family, the nomination may be in favour of any person or persons but if the member subsequently acquires a family, such nomination shall forthwith be deemed to be invalid and the member shall make a fresh nomination in favour of one or more persons belonging to his family.

<sup>3</sup>[(4A) Where the nomination is wholly or partly in favour of a minor, the member may, for the purposes of this Scheme appoint a major person of his family, as defined in clause (g) of paragraph 2, to be the guardian of the minor nominee in the event of the member predeceasing the nominee and the guardian so appointed:

Provided that where there is no major person in the family the member may, at his discretion, appoint any other person to be a guardian of the minor nominee]

(5) A nomination made under sub-paragraph (1) may at any time be modified by a member after giving a written notice of his intention of doing so in Form 2 annexed hereto. If the nominee predeceases the member, the interest of the nominee shall revert to the member who may make a fresh nomination in respect of such interest.

(6) A nomination or its modification shall take effect to the extent that it is valid on the date on which it is received by the Commissioner.

<sup>1</sup>[62. Financing of member's Life Insurance Policies.-- (1) Where a member desires that premium due on a policy of Life Insurance taken by him on his own life should be financed from his Provident Fund Account, he may apply in such form and in such manner may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

(2) On receipt of such application, the Commissioner, or where so authorized by the Commissioner, any other officer subordinate to him may make payment on behalf of the member to the Life Insurance Corporation of India towards premium due on his policy:

Provided that no such payment shall be made unless the premium is payable <sup>2</sup>[***] yearly.

(3) Any payment made under sub-paragraph (2) shall be made out of and debited to the member's own contribution with interest thereon standing to his credit in the fund.

(4) No payment shall be made under sub-paragraph (2) unless the member's own contribution in his Provident Fund Account with interest thereon is sufficient to pay the premium; and where the payment is to be made on the first premium, sufficient to pay the premium for two years.

(5) No payment shall be made towards a policy unless it is legally assignable by the member to the Central Board.

(6) The Commissioner shall before making payment in respect of existing policies, satisfy himself by reference to the Life Insurance Corporation that no prior assignment of the policy exists and the policy is free from all encumbrances.

(7) No educational endowment policy of marriage endowment policy shall be financed from the Fund, if such policy is due for payment in whole or in part before the member attains the age of 55 years.

63. Conversion of policy into a paid up one and payment of late fee, etc. -- Where a policy of Life Insurance of a member is financed from his Provident Fund Account, the Commissioner may,

a) convert the insurance policy into a paid up one when the credit in his Provident Fund on account of his share becomes inadequate for the payment of any premium;

b) pay late fee and interest out of the member's own contribution in his Provident Fund Account, if any premium cannot be remitted to the Life Insurance Corporation in time because of delay in sending to the Commissioner the policy duly assigned to the Central Board or any other Reasons for which the member or his employer may be responsible.]

64. Assignment of policies to the fund. – <sup>1</sup>[(1) The policy shall, within six months of the first payment under paragraph 62, be assigned by endorsement thereon, to the Central Board and shall be delivered to the Commissioner.

(2) Notice of the assignment of the policy shall be given by the member to the Life Insurance Corporation and the acknowledgement of the said notice by the Corporation shall be sent to the Commissioner within three months of the date of assignment.]

(3) The terms of the policy shall not be altered nor shall the policy be exchanged for another policy without the prior consent of the Commissioner to whom the details to the alteration or of the new policy shall be furnished in such form as he may specify.

<sup>1</sup>[(4) If the policy is not assigned and delivered as required under sub-paragraph (1), or is assigned otherwise than to the Board, or is charged or encumbered or lapses any amount paid from the Fund in respect of such policy shall, with interest thereon at the rate provided under paragraph 60 be repaid by the member forthwith to the Fund. In the event of default, the employer shall, on receipt of such directions as may be issued by the Commissioner in this behalf deduct the amount in lump sum or in such installments as the Commissioner may determine from the emoluments of the member and pay it to the Fund within such time and in such manner as may be specified by the Commissioner. The amount so repaid or recovered shall be credited to the member's account in the Fund.]

<sup>1</sup>[65. Bonus on policy to be adjusted against payments made from the fund. -- So long as the policy remains assigned to the Central Board, any bonus accruing on it may be drawn by the Central Board or where authorized by the Central Board by the Commissioner, and adjusted against the payments made on behalf of the member under paragraph 62.

66. Reassignment of policies. -- (1) Where the accumulations standing to the credit of the member are withdrawn under paragraph 69 or when the member repays to the Fund the amounts of premium paid by the Board with interest thereon at the rate provided in paragraph 60, the Central Board or, where authorized by the Central Board, the Commissioner shall reassign by endorsement thereon the policy to the member together with a signed notice of reassignment addressed to the Life Insurance Corporation.

(2) If the member dies before the policy has been reassigned under sub-paragraph (1), the Central Board or, where authorized by the Central Board, the Commissioner shall reassign by the endorsement thereon, the policy to the nominee of the member if a valid nomination subsists and if there be no such nominee, to such person as may be legally entitled to receive it together with a signed notice of reassignment addressed to the Life Insurance Corporation.

67. Recovery of amounts paid towards insurance policies. -- If a policy matures or otherwise falls due for payment during the currency of its assignment, the Central Board or, Where so authorized by the Central Board, the Commissioner shall realize the amount assured together with bonus, if any, accrued thereon place in the credit of the member the amount so realized, or the whole of the amount paid from the Fund in respect of the policy with interest thereon whichever is less, refund the balance, if any, to the member.]

shall also be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked in the <sup>1</sup>[establishment];

26-A. Retention of membership. – A member of the fund shall continue to be a member until he withdraws under paragraph 69 the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or is covered by a notification of exemption under sec. 17 of the Act or an order of exemption under paragraph 27 or 27-A.

Explanation. – In the case of a claim for refund by a member under sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 69 the membership of the Fund shall be deemed to have been terminated from the date the payment is authorized to him by the authority specified in this behalf by the Commissioner irrespective of the date of claim.

26-B. Resolution of doubts. – If any question arises as to whether a newspaper employee is entitled or required to become or continue as member or as to the date from which he is entitled or required to become a member, the decision thereon of the Regional Commissioner <sup>2</sup>[* * *] shall be final:

Provided that no decision shall be given unless both the employer and the employee have been given an opportunity of being heard.”

<sup>3</sup>[81. Special provisions in the case of Cine-Workers. – The Scheme shall, in its application to Cine-Workers as defined in clause (c) of section 2 of the Cine-Workers and Cinema Theatre Workers (Regulation of Employment) Act, 1981 (50 of 1981), be subject to the following modifications, namely:-

(1) In chapters I to IX, references to ‘industry’ and ‘employees’ shall be construed as references to ‘film production’ and ‘cine-workers’, respectively.

<sup>3</sup> Ins. by G.S.R. 687 dated the 24th August, 1987 (w.e.f. 5th September, 1987).

(2) for sub-paragraph (f) or paragraph 2, the following sub-paragraph shall be substituted, namely:--

“(f) ‘excluded employee’ means: --

- i) a cine-worker, who having been a member of the Fund, has withdrawn the full amount of his accumulations, in the Fund under clause (a) or clause (c) of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 69;
- ii) a ‘cine-worker’, whose wages at the time he is otherwise entitled to become a member of the Fund exceeds one thousand and six hundred rupees per month and where such remuneration is by way of a lump sum exceeding fifteen thousand Rs.

Explanation. – ‘Wages’ means ‘wages’ as defined in clause (k) of section 2 of the Cine-Workers and Cinema Theatre Workers (Regulation of Employment) Act, 1981 (50 of 1981)”;

(3) For paragraph 26, the following paragraph shall be substituted, namely: --

“26. Class of employees entitled and required to join the fund. – (1) Every cine-worker to whom this Scheme applies, other than an excluded employee, shall be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the beginning of the month following that in which this paragraph comes into force, if on the date of such coming into force he had worked in not less than three feature films with one or more producers.

Explanation.—‘Feature film’ means ‘feature film’ as defined in clause (f) of section 2 of the Cine-Workers and Cinema Theatre Workers (Regulation of Employment) Act, 1981 (50 of 1981).

(b) Every cine-worker employed to do any work, in or in relation to any feature film in a film production unit to which this Scheme applies, other than an excluded employee, shall be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the beginning of the month following that in which this paragraph comes into force in such film production unit, if on the date of such coming into force, such employee is a subscriber to a Provident Fund maintained in respect of the establishment or in respect of another establishment under the same employer.

(2) Where the Scheme applies to a film production unit on the expiry or cancellation of an order of exemption under section 17 of the Act, every cine-worker who, but for the exemption would have become and continued as a member of the Fund shall become a member of the Fund forthwith.

(3) After this paragraph comes into force in a film production unit, every cine-worker thereof, other than an excluded employee, who has not become a member already shall also be entitled and required to become a member from the beginning of the month following that in which he completes work in three feature films in that production unit or in another such unit (to which the Act applies) under the same producer or partly in one and partly in the other.

(4) An excluded employee referred to in clause (ii) of paragraph 2 (f) of a film production unit to which this Scheme applies shall, on ceasing to be such an employee be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the beginning of the month following that on which he ceases to be such employee, provided that on the date on which he ceases to be an excluded employee, he had worked in not less than three feature films in that production unit to which the Act applies under the same producer or partly in one and partly in the other.

(5) On re-election of a class of cine-workers exempted under paragraph 27-A to join the Fund or on the expiry or cancellation of an order under that paragraph, every cine-worker, who for such exemption would have become and continued as a member of the Fund, shall forthwith become a member thereof.

(6) Every cine-worker who is a member of a private Provident Fund maintained in respect of an exempted film production unit and who, but for the exemption, would have become and continued as a member of the Fund shall, on joining a film production unit to which this Scheme applies, become a member of the Fund forthwith.

(7) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this paragraph, a Commissioner may, on a joint request in writing of any cine-worker of a film production unit to which this Scheme applies and his producer, enroll such cine-worker as a member who shall, thereafter, be entitled to the benefits and shall be subject to the conditions of the Fund:

Provided that the producer gives an undertaking, in writing, that he shall pay the administrative charges payable and comply with all statutory provisions of the Act and this Scheme in respect of such cine-worker.

26-A. Retention of membership. – A member of the Fund shall continue to be a member until he withdraws under paragraph 69 the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or is covered by a notification of exemption under section 17 of the Act or an order of exemption under paragraph 27 or 27A.

Explanation. – In the case of a claim for refund by a member under sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 69, the membership of the fund shall be deemed to have been terminated from the date the payment is authorized to him by the authority specified in this behalf by the Commissioner irrespective of the date of claim.

26-B. Resolution of doubts. – If any question arises as to whether a cine-worker is entitled or required to become or continue as member or as to the date from which he is entitled or required to become a member, the decision of the Regional Commissioner shall be final:

Provided that no decision shall be given unless both the film producer and the cine-worker have been given an opportunity of being heard.”
