*Message from the Association on the occasion of superannuation of our respected colleague Shri S. K.
Khanna, Additional Central P. F. Commissioner.*

Sir, the Officers of EPFO avail this opportunity to express their feeling about you.

The Association highly values Shri Khanna Sahab as the senior most colleague of our fraternity. During whole of his service spanning little less than four decades, his presence has always evoked a sense of confidence and assurance among the officers fraternity. Sir, as the Secretary General of the Association himself had secured the epic judgment ending the system of officers on deputation grabbing the vital posts in EPFO and keeping us on the margins.

Firm handling of the situation as the Regional Commissioner of West Bengal had won you a huge applaud and elevated you, Sir, as an icon among us. It gave immense confidence to all of us in dealing with any problem that may arise in our official intercourse.

Be it sessions in the National Academy as faculty, rigorous work reviews in supervisory capacity or deliberation in review meeting, your presence, Sir, had always been awe inspiring that helped us all in improving our OLOs. Whole organization had looked up to you in solving a difficult situation arising in any area of work especially law, compliance or recovery.

The loss that EPFO and the officer community suffer today on account of your superannuation may be compensated only by a process of continued engagement with you.

The Association wish you, Sir, an active and healthy life and seek your blessings and elderly guidance in our future endeavors.

Sudarshan Kumar

Secretary General
