Subject: Sincere gratitude for timely issuance of Annual General Transfer orders and request for grant of appointment - regarding

Respected Sir,

The EPF Officers' Association would like to sincerely thank you for the issuance of timely annual general transfer (AGT) orders for EPFO officers and staff on 27.03.2025. The issuance of these orders is truly unprecedented in the organisation,

- For the very first time in memory such large scale orders have been issued together for not only the officers but also the staff of the organisation.
- The orders have been issued well before the 31st of March, which shall allow all concerned to plan their personal lives including children's education properly.
- The orders have been issued on basis of the new & more humane transfer policy which was promulgated as per your benevolent directions.

2. Sir, majority of the officers have been posted as per their requests and are truly thankful. However, some of the officers whose requests could not be accommodated have represented for reconsideration, and it is prayed that their genuine requests may kindly be considered as far as possible.

3. We, EPF officers, are also sincerely grateful to your goodself for some of the other recent issues that you have magnanimously decided such as the grant of NFSG benefits to officers after a lapse of 4 years, and the decision to extend CGHS benefits to serving & retired employees of EPFO outside Delhi & Jaipur. Besides above HR issues, your effective decision making in rapid modernising of EPFO IT infrastructure speaks for itself.

4. It is hoped that under your gracious guidance all other long pending HR issues shall also reach satisfactory conclusion at the earliest. We request your goodself to kindly grant the EPF Officers' Association an appointment so that some these important issues can be brought to your kind attention.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,

[Saurabh Swami]
Secretary-General
